To Our Friends

A friend is one who will help you,
Neither asking how or why,
And one who will always remember
As the years pass swiftly by.

To our friends, the teachers, who've helped us,
It may be our last adieu
And though some are leaving forever,
Part of our hearts stay here with you.

For a friend is one who will help you,
Neither asking how or why,
And one who will always remember
As the years pass swiftly by.

Principal

MR. S. E. THOMPSON was new to the January 1936 Senior Class in the fall, but he did his best to help them. Everything brought before him to improve North High was given very fair consideration. Now when the Seniors are finishing their days at North High, he is just beginning his in these Polar Regions.

Vice Principal

MR. F. J. MEIER'S genial manner with boys while at North High will long be remembered by all those who have come in contact with him. His experience with boys and girls has given him a wide understanding of the problems of youth.

Girls' Adviser

MISS ESSIE M. WHIRRY is the school mother to girls all through their three years at North. This helpful attitude is felt most when one is a Senior. She does all that she can to see that their last year will be the one remaining longest in the minds of Polar graduates.

The North Star

By Herndon Hightower

We stand on life's threshold
And glance back through the past,
Behind us unfolded,
We know secure and steadfast.

Then turning and peering
Far ahead we make out
A dim light shining ever
O'er a still dimmer route.

Faint figures are struggling
Through uncertainty's haze
With hope everlasting
In their enraptured gaze.

And now 'tis our privilege
To go out with the rest
And search for that road
In the way we think best.

The light is attainment
And the tortuous road
Is the only way to it,
Only the light is the goad.

Ah! but now there's another,
A light in the sky,
The North Star is the light
And the light of North High.

The Season

The 1935 Polar Bear football team was made up of the never-die type of athletes, but throughout the season they had some kind of "hoax" over them.

It started to work early in the season, when Chuck Davey, '34 all-city fullback, was unable to play because of an infection and injured knee and consequently was of little use through the season. The lineup that started one game was hampered by the hoax so that the same lineup never started more than one game. Captain Frank Coppola and John Heggen were the only regulars who were uninjured throughout the year.

The Pink and Green played one of the hardest schedules in the history of the school. Centerville, Roosevelt and Ames were three of the strongest teams in the state, the first two being undefeated and Ames defeated but once. Belle Plaine, East, Lincoln, Chariton and Ottumwa are always formidable foes for any team.

The 1935 gridsters were a fighting crew with plenty of spirit and always came back eager for the next game.

The players who saw plenty of action this year were Lester Jefferson, John Dalton, Jack Parker, Kenneth Rank, Donald Brewer, John Gilman, Ed Beisser, Howard Zook, Chet Sims, Darrel Kiddie, Gerald Mathews, Ozzie Lewis, Frank Coppola, Bob Johnson, John Phillips, Mike Ortale, James Collins, John Heggen and Doug Ullrich.

Those available for next year's eleven are Acuff, Pomerantz, Collins, Beisser, Sims, Ginsberg, Kiddie, Smith, Goodwin, and Jefferson.

Senior Diary

September 3—

Back again with classmates and friends, also a new principal, Mr. S. E. Thompson. Polarland seems to be overflowing. Hope the "cubs" don't get trampled on. New fangled lunch hours have been planned. (They ask why mothers get gray but nothing is mentioned about students.)

September 10—

Undertook the weary task of writing three program cards. No wonder humans develop rheumatism. Polar Bears attended first assembly today and was the place packed!

September 13—

A grand send off for the work of the Student Council in the form of a Polar Bear Booster Dinner led the activities today. A swell time was had by all (officers of Student Council to committee members.)

September 20—

Big Senior election in swing. There must always be a tie so the electors will have to vote again. Student Council officers officially took up their tasks today.

September 21—

First football game with Belle Plaine played today. North came out on top for a grand opening.

September 27—

Four hundred new Polarites were entertained in the gym tonight while the pig-skin team traveled to Chariton for a work-out.

October 5—

Another week, another football game, this time with the Ames team. North seemed a little under the weather; there's still a chance.

October 11—

All Seniors were aboard the special train for the first "get together" this evening. For the first time Seniors were looked upon by "green" eyes.

October 12—

Down to Ottumwa our football team went to a hard fight.

October 18—

Members of all clubs were mixed this evening, enjoying themselves by a dance or a game, or maybe, just gossiping. A big football rally was inaugurated in the gym, and did the rafters ring!

October 19—

Hurrah! and three cheers, for the Pink and Green played the first home game giving Centerville a run for the top on the scoreboard, but it seems the winds weren't North "wins."

October 26—

Game with Lincoln and did we ever go to town! In fact we almost went to New York. Oh, what a grand time!

October 30—

Drake presented "The Tavern" for us Polar Bears which was really a treat.

October 31—

School dismissed at noon! Three cheers for the State Teachers meeting!

November 2—

As per usual it starts to rain (or should we say pour?) a few minutes before the North-Roosevelt game. Our boys surely fought but alack, and alas, we do have misfortunes.

November 8—

Today is the celebration of the sixth annual Color Day, and tonight the big game. Those goal posts must dislike our pig-skin carriers as they seem to run the other way when we start through the line. Football season now closes with some victories and some defeats.

November 18—

The Service Committee put a large thermometer in the hall today and we just laughed and laughed because we knew Polar-land couldn't be hot enough to have a temperature. Anyway—it's for the Community Chest Drive—and reports say we're not doing so bad.

November 22—

The "first-nighters" rushed down the aisles to their seats to view the first performance of "Minick" with an all star cast. What a play! What a crowd! What a night!

November 23—

Last showing of a grand play "Minick."

November 28-29—

Thanksgiving turkey, cranberries and a holiday.

December 6—

Our basketballers traveled to Marshalltown for the first game of season and not a bad start with a score of 14-11 in our favor.

December 13—

Walked under ladder, broke a mirror, and Friday 13, yet today is our lucky day, because North tramped out Fort Dodge with a score of 14-3.

December 14—

Our basketball sinkers journeyed to Pella today and brought back a luscious score, 36-15.

December 20—

"Nativity" was presented by Music and Dramatic Departments. The great annual event, our All-School Dance, proved a big success tonight—all in the Christmas spirit and everything.

January 6—

Well, well, back again to dear old Iceland, and did we ever have a grand time.

January 17—

Last day in the school of learning for the big-shot Seniors and also last Senior meeting. Next week they will be very, very busy with baccalaureate sermon, banquet and class day and last but not least the commencement exercises. Here's iceburgs of wishes for good luck in future occupations and enterprises.

Class Will

We, the members of the January '36 graduating class, being of desiccated and abbreviated intellects and moribund bodies, do ordain, establish, leave, bequeath, will, bestow, pass, and give to this lucky school the following singular traits and superlative abilities:

Wanda Dodd bestows that Castilian temperament (including the flashing brown eyes) upon Roy Addington.

Joan Dahleen, alias snake-tongue, leaves her cerebral dexterity in juggling wise cracks to Bill Cullen.

Della Page, nimble-fingered Polarian pianist, fondly gives her sense of music to Janet York.

Howard Zook, curly-headed Lothario, leaves his debonair mien to Eula Jeanne Shearn.

John Dalton leaves behind his desire for Alaskan books (which aren't in the school library anyway) to that extremely studious Frank Richardson.

Georgia Porter leaves her constant habit of never being on time for scheduled engagements to John Phillips.

Ila Hart bequeaths her statuesque height to the one and only Bernard Marks.

Margaret Hawthorn passes on her Latin translating ability to Perry Benfer.

Frank Coppola wills his tremendous physique to Bud Collins to be used sparingly.

Rhoba Jean Gillam deeds her pedal extremities to Billy Schiltz to be preserved until death do them part.

Joe Pearlman leaves his devastating sales ability to Betty Ann Luker to be judiciously applied at the propitious moment.

Warren Judd leaves his clarion call to Betty Ebers.

Paul Lyon wills the gum he has chewed to the custodian as he has had to remove it from the desk anyhow.

Don Huffy, gay Polarian rogue, bequeaths his scintillating personality to Ben Morris, future Don Juan.

Tom Frame leaves that flaming red top knot and freckles to Connie Betzenhouser.

Joe Comito leaves his now decreased mustache to Sam Andrews with which to support his sideburns.

Lois Thompson gives her much publicized dimples to Don Brewer.

Bob Schaal bequeaths his most envious position as "aqua puer" (water boy) and those quills, he calls his hair, to Dorothy Glyde.

Francis Hartshorn to all the 12B girls wills his quizzical manner of querulously questioning teachers.

Maxine Katzenberger leaves her golden vocal cords to Earl (Bing) Aeuff.

James Cox, philanderer, leaves his dancing ability to Harry Chubb.

Myron Isenberger bequeaths his love to his fellow man to Geraldine Grose, erstwhile columnist.

Frances Nance wills her tranquil disposition to Gabby Gilman.

Jim Stewart, blond Adonis of the Oracle circulation department, leaves all his trials and tribulations to Walt Stephens and Paul Miller.

Louise Millsap leaves "them exotic coils" to Mr. Gooch.

Andrew Riggs, alias Judy, leaves his towering height to petit Ed Beisser to complete a good job of growing.

Mildred White leaves her wistful aura to Fred Nance.

Claude Conklin wills his ability to wear clothes to Richard Hammer and hopes he will wear a tie.

James Flatley, Student Council president, bequeaths to Harold Kar-don his extraordinary speech-making ability.

Bob Hays, God's gift to women, bequeaths his way with the ladies to Gerald Burch.

Bob Grant bestows his strange love of bugs and weeds upon Marjorie Thompson, as some of the buggy-looking bugs still haunt him.

Ray Knode gives his distinctive jumping ability to Betty Gilliland that she may jump higher at future football games.

Lila Lee bequeaths her interrogating (?) eyebrow to any small 12B who wishes to become a teacher and who will need something to hold her charges in check.

Wilbur Norman leaves his (self-admitted) astounding baseball ability to Ted Stevens.

Ida Vestine wills Jimmy Clark to LaRue Schlotter (preserve him, gal).

Margaret Bullis wills her elegant nature and her want of good jokes to Betty Work.
